Message from the Executive Director of Security and Emergency Management

Central Piedmont Community College is a community of students, staff and faculty all working together for a common goal: to provide a safe and secure learning and working environment.

The CPCC security staff's primary responsibility is the safety and security of the CPCC community. However, this task cannot be accomplished by the security staff alone. Safety is everyone's responsibility.

We hope the information in this brochure is informative and helpful. If you have any questions or would like more information about security and safety at CPCC, please call 704.330.6632.

Sincerely,
Chauncey A. Bowers, CSP, ARM

EMERGENCIES

For emergencies on all campuses call 704.330.6911 or call 6911 from an on-campus phone

Call 6911 from any on-campus telephone or yellow emergency call boxes (locations are shown on the map inside). Report all emergencies – safety or security matters, apparent crimes or medical emergencies. We encourage you to report any crime, regardless of how insignificant it may seem. The security officer who answers your call is trained in handling emergencies.

What information do I need when reporting an emergency?

When calling be prepared to:

- Give your location.
- Describe the nature of the emergency.
- Stay on the phone until the dispatcher tells you to hang up, if possible.

The security officer at 6911 will dispatch the nearest security officer or additional help — fire, police or medic — to assist you.

Non-emergencies

Call 6632 or 704.330.6632 from non-campus phones for non-emergencies – such as being admitted into buildings. For Parking Services, call 704.330.6117.

Central Piedmont Community College is an equal opportunity institution. 3,000 copies of this document were produced at a total cost of $1,043.53 or $0.35 per piece. CPCC 8894

Need assistance?

The College Security Officers are here to help you. No matter what kind of situation arises at the College, contacting CPCC's 24-hour Central Dispatch Station (Facilities Services, 1325 E. 7th Street) is the first step toward resolving problems. As soon as you dial for assistance, a radio call will go out to the nearest security officer. If additional help is needed — fire, police or medic — it can also be immediately dispatched.

Call 704.330.6911 for emergencies on all campuses.
Call 6911 from on-campus phones.
Call 704.330.6632 for non-emergencies on all campuses.
Call 6632 from on-campus phones.

What you can expect from Campus Security

Various services are available to students, employees and visitors.

- For employees, offices and designated classrooms will be locked or unlocked on request.
- A security escort to your car will be provided upon request. Escorts can also be used for medical reasons when a golf cart is available.
- Parking lots are monitored for safety. Elevators on campus and in parking decks are equipped with telephones which you may use to call for assistance. College Security's first priority is to ensure parking lots are safe.
- Security officers will investigate all reports of a crime. Law enforcement officers will be dispatched when necessary.

Medical assistance on campuses

The security staff provides first aid services for all campuses. All campuses are equipped with automatic external defibrillators. To report medical emergencies from any campus, call 704.330.6911 or call 6911 from on-campus phones.

Parking at CPCC

This parking guide will show you where to park and how to get to all our campuses. Take a moment to read it and study the campus maps and adjacent streets to plan your best route. Visitor parking is allowed in designated areas.

Fees, North Carolina statutes and codified CPCC regulations:

- Campus Access, Parking and Security fee: The CAPS Fee will cost curriculum students $80 (who are registered for 9 credit hours or more), $60 (8 credit hours or less), and $10 per class for Corporate and Continuing Education (CCE) students. No student will be charged more than $88 per semester. Fees are subject to change without notice.
- North Carolina General Statutes 20–37.6: Parking in a handicapped parking space without a handicapped placard (permit) is illegal. Using someone else's placard when that person is not using the vehicle is also a misdemeanor. Violators will receive up to a $250 citation. If you need a handicapped placard, contact the N.C. Division of Motor Vehicles for an application. Central Campus handicapped access information is available in the Office of Disability Services, Terrell Building, Second Floor.
- Park only within lined spaces in the appropriate staff or student lot. Cars improperly parked or blocking other cars may receive a parking violation notice or may be towed or booted at the owner's expense. Any vehicle receiving more than three notices of parking violations within a semester/term may be towed or booted at the owner's expense. Excessive violations may result in a hold being placed on grades and registration.
- Parking violation fees must be paid promptly. Please see instructions on citation. Send appeals to cpcc.notices@preferredparking.com.
- On all campuses, you may get answers to parking questions not answered by this brochure at the information center on campus.
- Sharing, exchanging or allowing others to use your parking permit to access CPCC parking lots, is a violation of NC Code. Those caught will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law and students can also face disciplinary action for violating CPCC's Student Code of Conduct.

For all campuses

Due to the popularity of morning classes, parking spaces may be difficult to find between the hours of 9 and 11:30 a.m. You can make the task easier by studying the helpful hints and parking instructions that follow.

- Always display your permit.
- Expect parking to be more challenging during the first weeks of each semester.
- Consider scheduling classes in the early morning or the afternoon.
- Consider carpooling with a friend, especially the first few days of classes.
- Instead of driving to campus, ride the bus. Bus schedules are available in the Student Life Center. Bus passes are sold at a discount in the CPCC Bookstore. Consider taking CATS' Gold Rush which provides a quick connection to the Charlotte Transportation Center and the LYNX Blue Line.
- Many streets surrounding Central Campus are one-way or have medians that restrict turns. Note the location of each parking lot and its best point of access for you.
- All drivers who use Central Campus Lot 9 must pay when exiting the lot.
- Arrive on campus early for classes.
- Take the time to visit our beautiful campuses before the first day of classes. Drive around and locate each parking lot; park and walk around the campus using the map to locate the buildings where your classes are scheduled.
