CPCC MOTORCYCLE CLASSES - FALL 2013

Meet Your CPCC Instructors

CPCC basic rider coach Jeff Fair has been riding motorcycles for 38 years and teaching the basic rider course for 14 years.

- First bike: Suzuki GT380
- How are today's motorcycles different than when you started riding: The shifter was on the right side, the rear brake was on the left and the motorcycles used a kick-starter not an electric starter.
- How many motorcycles have you owned: More than 10
- Current bike: 2004 Electra Glide Standard
- Dream Ride: Take a month to ride to Sturgis, South Dakota and ride through the Black Hills mountain range in western South Dakota.
- What do you take on every ride: He brings enough wrenches to do any type of repair needed on the side of the road.
- Why enjoy teaching: "I really believe in the program."
- Likely to hear Jeff say In Class: "Icing on the cake."
- Why Do You Love Riding: "I could always see myself out in the west riding in the open plains. I just love being on it and doing it."

We appreciate your interest and hope you'll help us spread the word about CPCC's motorcycle safety classes. Do you have a comment or an idea? Let us hear from you today on the courses you'd like to see or how we can better serve your needs.
Course: MIC 8780

Sincerely,

Ben Posey - (704) 330-2722 Ext. 7284
Shirley Bryant - (704) 330-4272

"I really enjoyed the class. The lessons learned can and have made me a better rider. I would refer all of the people I know to this course." Thanks Sheila and Ken!

Going Places

Headed to the mountains to see the fall foliage? Try staying at a motorcycle lodge.

Iron Horse Motorcycle Lodge and Campground

<http://www.ironhorsenc.com>

This campground is located near the scenic Cherochala Skyway and Deals Gap, the famed twisty road with 318 curves in 11-miles.

Kickstand Lodge

In Ferguson, which sits on the Yadkin River in Wilkes County. The area is popular for scenic rides. Even the ride to the lodging area is challenging.

CPCC Motorcycle Classes – Fall 2013

Register for one of our popular motorcycle riding and safety classes. We have classes for all experienced levels.

Motorcycle Basic Rider Course

This weekend course is designed for those with no motorcycle riding experience, but it offers plenty of drills to enhance the riding skills of experienced riders. Motorcycles are provided. This class has a women-only option and is also offered on weekdays.

Motorcycle Basic Rider Course Dealer Experience

CPCC now offers the basic rider course at Motorcycles of Charlotte on Westinghouse Blvd. In addition to the basic motorcycle training, this course includes a smaller studentteacher ratio, tours of the facility and a demonstration of safety equipment. This class has a women-only option and is also offered on weekdays. Motorcycles are provided.

Experienced Rider Course

This one-day course is designed for experienced riders who want to sharpen their skills on their personal motorcycles. Riders must have license or have a N.C. permit.
