

Student Consent to Disclose Financial Aid Records

TO BE COMPLETED BY THE STUDENT**

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) is a Federal law that protects the privacy of student education records created or maintained by a school that receives Federal funds. Students who attend Central Piedmont Community College retain the right of privacy in their education records. CPCC may provide access to a student's education records to a third party if the student provides written consent using this form. I understand that I may rescind this form by submitting a signed, written request at any time.

Unless otherwise indicated, this Consent to Disclose form will be valid for one academic year (covering Fall, Spring, and Summer terms) only. At the end of Summer semester, this document will become null and void.

I am / was (circle one) a student at CPCC. I hereby give my voluntary consent for CPCC officials to disclose the following financial aid records. Specifically describe the records to be disclosed (e.g. tax transcripts, student aid report, verification worksheets, refund information, etc.).

The disclosure of the records listed above may be made to:
