

Richard “Lane” Yates, Chairman and President Yates Development LLC

Associate Degree, Civil Engineering, 1989

Lane, always a man of vision and dreams knew that education was a key ingredient necessary for his success formula. After completing his military service, Lane moved to Charlotte, North Carolina where he enrolled in the civil engineering program at CPCC. Like many other students, Lane had to juggle work and school and commitments.

Lane began his real estate investing and development career in 1989 shortly after graduating with a Civil Engineering Degree from Central Piedmont Community College, Charlotte North Carolina.

In 1994, Lane formed Yates Development and began his new career as a real estate investor and developer.
