

Florence Jaffa, CPCC Alumna and Life-Long Learner

Mrs. Jaffa has been actively involved in the visual arts for most of her life. Her art education began as a preteen and continued through high school, Brooklyn College in New York, and CPCC.

She enrolled in her first course at CPCC 40 years ago, in 1966, and went on to receive a degree in commercial art and advertising design. In 1972, she resumed her arts studies at CPCC with emphasis on oil painting and printmaking.

Her art has shown in exhibitions in North and South Carolina. Her work is represented in many corporate and private collections, and has won awards in exhibitions at the Greenville Museum, the Museum of York County, Spring Mills, and CPCC.

The Florence and Ben Jaffa, Jr. Printmaking Studio recognizes Mrs. Jaffa's generous support for printmaking instruction at CPCC.
