Administrative History

Inside CPCC began in January 1981 as a bi-monthly newsletter that varied from two to six pages in length. The full title of the publication was Inside CPCC: The Newsletter for Friends of Central Piedmont Community College. It was originally published by the Office of Public Information, a department which has had various names throughout its existence and is now known as Community Relations and Marketing Services.

In 1986 Inside CPCC changed to a glossy, magazine-style publication and was published quarterly. This version of the publication was started by Peg Robarchek, the former director of marketing and publications for CPCC.

Scope and Contents

The Inside CPCC Collection is an artificial collection of the newsletter and magazine titled Inside CPCC. Indexes exist for the issues from 1981 to 1983. The publication contains news of staff, faculty and student achievements, a campus events calendar, and human interest stories about people and programs at CPCC.
