Scope and Contents

This collection is comprised of items selected by CPCC staff, students and faculty to be included in a time capsule commemorating the 25th anniversary of CPCC. The items include school publications, records and memorabilia from student groups, letters and printed ephemera from local organizations, letters from local school children, VHS recordings and slide photographs. The collection also includes the PVC time capsule and the student-made brass plaque, which was set in brick to seal the time capsule. The items document various aspects of the lives and activities of the CPCC community in 1988.
