

CPCC Service Learning

Completing service hours at the Humane Society of Charlotte benefits the staff and the animals that are housed in our shelter. The staff is always welcoming of extra help. The animals in our shelter are happier and healthier when people spend time loving and caring for them.

We value the time CPCC Service Learning students spend with the Humane Society of Charlotte. We hope you learn the issues of pet overpopulation and the value of proper pet care including sheltering, education and altering animals.
