Please respond to the following questions on a separate sheet of paper. Consider your answers carefully. If selection committee has additional questions, they may contact you directly.

1. Are you a full time or part time student?
2. How do you spend your time outside of college?
3. What is your expected graduation date and what do you plan to do after graduation?
4. Please list previous volunteer experiences, both domestic and abroad.
5. Please list any previous international travel experience, including location and purpose.
6. This fellowship is based on financial need. Please describe your financial situation as it relates to paying for college and to the need for this fellowship.
7. The fellowship covers program fees. You will be responsible for the airfare, passport, visa (if applicable) and other associated costs of participating in the program. Please explain how you will be able to meet this obligation should you be selected as a fellowship recipient.
8. The fellowship program seeks to engage a wide range of “non-traditional” students in a service learning abroad opportunity. Please describe the diversity (which can be defined broadly) that you would bring to the group of fellow service learning abroad participants at your site.
9. What is your personal motivation for participating in a Cross-Cultural Solutions international volunteer program? (200 words minimum)
10. What attributes and experiences will 1) make you a successful participant on a Cross-Cultural Solutions program and 2) inspire others to engage? (200 words minimum)

Please read each section and initial each box:

I understand that Cross-Cultural Solutions programs are designed for mature individuals who will live and work in a group setting, in a country with different regulations and culture, and requires a great degree of responsibility, adaptability and teamwork. I agree to participate in the program under the direction of the faculty leader and Cross-Cultural Solutions staff.

I agree to adhere to the requirements of the Harris T. Wofford Global Service Fellowship, which include:

- Write an online review about his/her experience.
- Select from one of the following:
 1. Host an information session on campus or in the about the experience.
 2. Write an article for the student newspaper or local paper about the experience.
 3. Visiting a classroom on campus or the study abroad office to talk about the experience.
 4. Poster the campus with CCS international volunteer posters.
