

Do you need tutoring?
OR
Do you need help with a subject/assignment?

The Academic Learning Center (ALC) offers free tutoring for:

- Math (DMA – MAT 200, as well as Accounting)
- Science (Chemistry, Physics, Biology, and Anatomy)
- English (writing assistance, including sentence structure, research documentation, and developing outlines and speeches.)
- Offered at Central, Cato, Merancas, Levine, Harper, and Harris campuses

The Language Lab provides support to Foreign Language and EFL (English as a Foreign Language) students. Offered at Central and Levine campuses. They offer one-on-one tutoring for:

- Spanish
- French
- German
- EFL
- Click here for location and hours

S.O.S. Math can help you if you are taking a DMA class. Offered at Central, Levine, and Cato campuses. There is no registration for S.O.S. Math. Just show up!

Developmental Studies Success Seminars can also help you if you're taking a DRE course, as well as DMA courses. Only offered at Central campus. Click here to register for the next seminar.

The CPCC Library can assist you with conducting research and using the proper citation tools for essays and speech outlines. The library website may be used to place holds on books you may need. You can even request for a book to be delivered to another CPCC location. Library Services is located at each CPCC campus. Click here to contact the Library at a CPCC campus near you.

Do you need help choosing the right classes?
OR
Do you need help deciding what career is right for you?

Advising assists new and current students with identifying classes to enroll in. Advising also helps students choose/change their academic major.

- Offered at Central, Cato, Merancas, Levine, Harris, Harper campuses. Click here to contact advising at a campus near you.
- The Transfer Resource Center assists students who want to transfer from CPCC to a 4-year college/university. You can meet with a transfer advisor to discuss your goals and learn more about transfer programs and events. Click here to contact a transfer advisor at a campus near you.

Career Services offers career counseling to students who may need guidance in choosing an appropriate career or who may need guidance with specific employment skills. Career Services is located at Central, Cato, Merancas, Levine, Harris, and Harper campuses. Services include:

- Career counseling
- Resume writing
- Practicing interview skills
- Assisting with job search
- Click here to contact career services at a campus near you.

Do you need to use a computer? OR Need tech help? OR Need a quiet place to study while on campus?	Information Technology Services (ITS) has several computer lab locations on all the CPCC campuses. Click here to find a computer lab on each campus. Click here to contact the ITS Help Desk. ITS also offers additional computing resources to students, which include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Free software or software discounts - Equipment discounts - Virus protection information - Computer recommendations The CPCC Library offers study rooms at Central, Levine, and Cato campuses. Click here to reserve a study room for yourself or a group.
Are you a veteran or a military family member?	Center for Military Families and Veterans will connect you to important CPCC and community resources. They can provide education and career development for veteran students and their family members. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Click here to contact the Center for Military Families and Veterans. Located at Central, Levine, Merancas, and Cato campuses.
Do you have a documented disability?	Disability Services provides academic accommodations to students with documented disabilities. Contact them here. The main Disability Services offices are located at the Central and Levine campuses. However, they can help students at any CPCC campus or location. Services include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Disability counseling - Interpreting services - Testing and assistive technology - Student support groups - Books in alternative format
Do you have personal/social/academic concerns that you need to talk to a professional about? OR Are you a first-generation* college student and you feel like you need additional support?	Counseling Services is a free and confidential service that helps CPCC students who are facing challenging times. A counselor will listen to you and help you discover solutions to meet your goals. Click here to contact Counseling Services and learn about the many reasons why students seek personal counseling. TRIO Support Services is a program that serves first-generation, low-income college students. They are located on Central campus. Click here to contact TRIO. Their services include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Academic coaching - Tutoring - Career support - Personal and social support <small>*first generation college student is defined as neither of your parents have a four-year college degree</small>

 Are you trying to figure out how to pay for college? OR Do you need additional financial/housing/family resources? 	The Financial Aid office assists you with applying for financial aid, receiving financial aid, and completing scholarship applications. Financial aid services are offered at Central, Cato, Merancas, Levine, Harris, Harper campuses. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Click here to contact financial aid at Central campus. For all other campuses, click here. Single Stop connects you to community resources that can help you deal with a financial crisis. Single Stop is offered at Central campus. Contact them here. Services include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Tax preparation - Benefits counseling - Financial literacy programming - Legal advice and representation Emergency Food Pantry can provide individuals and their households with food, in the case of emergency situations. The Emergency Food Pantry is located on Central campus. Click here to learn more about this resource. Family Resource Center connects students and their families to important CPCC and community resources. These resources can help those who may be in crisis or who may need additional support. The Family Resource Center is located on Central campus. Contact the Family Resource Center here. Their services include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Childcare assistance - Family support mentoring
 Want to get more involved on campus? 	Service Learning offers opportunities for you to gain hands-on-experience by applying what you're learning in the classroom in a real world setting. In other words, Service Learning combines community service and academic instruction. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Click here to contact Service Learning staff at Central, Levine, Harper, and Merancas campuses. Information for Cato and Harris campuses is coming soon! Student Life is the place to go if you're interested in joining a student club or organization, looking for leadership opportunities, or you're interested in the Student Government Association (SGA). Student Life also sponsors fun events on campus. Here is a list of all the CPCC student organizations. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Click here to contact Student Life at Central, Levine, Cato, Harris, Harper, or Merancas campuses. Office of Mentoring and Bridge offers mentoring programs for male and female CPCC students. They provide the opportunity to be matched with a mentor or you can become a mentor. They also offer activities and events (lectures and workshops) that center on relevant student and community topics. Located on Central campus. Click here to request more information about the programs listed below. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - MAN UP Program - Positive Community for Women - RISE (Resources Inspiring Student Excellence) - Ruth Shaw Scholars - Bring Your "A" Game - Community in College