Warning: According to the U.S. Department of Education, if you purposely give false or misleading information, you may be subject to a fine of up to $20,000 or imprisonment for up to 5 years, or both.

Our records indicate that you have withdrawn from all of the courses that have already started for this term; however, you are enrolled for a course starting later during this same term. A student is not considered to have completely withdrawn from the College if our office obtains a written confirmation from the student at the time of withdrawal that he or she will attend a module that begins later in the same term. Without confirmation of future attendance, our records will indicate that you have ceased attendance and a Return to Title IV calculation will be performed. For more information on Return to Title IV Funds please visit our website at: <https://www.cpcc.edu/financial-aid/keeping-your-aid/return-title-iv-funds-policy>

Certification: I understand that the U.S. Department of Education provides regulations governing the awarding and disbursement of federal financial aid. These regulations have impacted my financial aid disbursements due to dropping a course, being dropped for non-attendance, withdrawing, or receiving an unearned 'F' from one or more of my courses at Central Piedmont Community College (CPCC).

_____ I understand that in order for a Return to Title IV calculation not to be completed at this time, I am required to reaffirm Initial Here my intent to attend the remaining course(s) I am enrolled for this term. If I do not attend the future course(s) for which I am currently enrolled, a Return to Title IV calculation will be completed and I may owe money to CPCC and/or the U.S. Department of Education.

_____ If I do not attend the course(s) starting later in the term, my financial aid will be adjusted to the hours
Initial Here that I attended. An adjustment of aid may also result in a balance being owed to CPCC.

Please check one:

I DO plan on attending the module class/classes that begin later in this term. Please list course(s):

_____ I DO NOT plan on attending the module class/classes that begin later in this term.

You should drop these future classes either online or in person with Registration in order to avoid also being billed the full tuition and fees for classes you do not plan to attend.
