CARES ACT: Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund

Department of Education Reporting – Section 18004(a)(1)

Reporting Date: Apr. 10, 2021

Central Piedmont signed and returned to the U.S. Department of Education a Certification and Agreement and the assurance that Central Piedmont will use no less than 50 percent of funds received under this grant to provide CARES Act Emergency funds directly to students.

The total amount of funds that the institution will receive or has received from the Department pursuant to the institution's Certification and Agreement for Emergency Financial Aid Grants to Students: $5,393,777

The total amount of Emergency Financial Aid Grants distributed to students under Section 18004(a)(1) of the CARES Act as of the date of submission (i.e., every calendar quarter): $5,393,777

The estimated total number of students at the institution eligible to participate in programs under Section 484 in Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965 and thus eligible to receive Emergency Financial Aid Grants to students under Section 18004(a)(1) of the CARES Act: 9,919

The total number of students who have received an Emergency Financial Aid Grant to students under Section 18004(a)(1) of the CARES Act: 6,461

The method(s) used by the institution to determine which students receive Emergency Financial Aid Grants and how much they would receive under Section 18004(a)(1) of the CARES Act:

Central Piedmont used a formula based on course load (the number of credit hours students are taking) and Expected Family Contribution to ensure funding was disbursed to students with expenses related to the disruption of campus operations due to the coronavirus (including eligible expenses associated with a student's cost of attendance, such as food, housing, course materials, technology, healthcare, and child care). Additional emergency grants will be awarded to students with critical needs based on an application process. Students must apply for funds and submit documentation of need. Central Piedmont will verify expenses and award funds to eligible applicants on a first-come/first-served basis until all available funds are expended.

Any instructions, directions, or guidance provided by the institution to students concerning the Emergency Financial Aid Grants.

Information about how Central Piedmont is determining which students will receive grants is available on the Central Piedmont CARES Act Emergency Funds page.
