Dependent Student's Household Information

Directions

In the Dependent Student Household chart on page 2, list all family members or any other people who belong to your contributor's household using the following criteria:

- Yourself (the student)
- Custodial contributor as reported on the FAFSA. List your biological or adoptive contributors if they are married to each other, or are not married to each other but live together.
- Household member(s) supported by custodial contributor(s) more than 50 percent from July 1, 2025 through June 30, 2026.
- Your contributor(s)' dependent and/or other children (other children are those who are supported by, but do not live with your contributors) if your contributor(s) provide(s) more than half of the support for any dependent or other child, or if those children would be required to give contributor information when applying for federal aid.
- Other people, if any other person lives with and receives more than half of his/her support from your contributor(s) and will continue to receive more than half of his/her support from your contributor(s) during the time period from July 1, 2025 through June 30, 2026.

Number in College

Include the name of the college for any household member listed in your Dependent Student Household chart on page 2, (excluding contributors) if they plan to attend college at least half-time (six credit hours or more) in a degree any time between July 1, 2025 and June 30, 2026. You may be asked to provide documentation of enrollment for family member(s) (i.e., printout from the school's website of the current schedule, an acceptance letter, or a copy of the tuition and fees invoice).

Dependent Student Household Chart

List the number in the household and/or in college as indicated in directions on page 1. If the individual listed also attends college, please include the name of the college and if enrolled at least half-time. If you need more space, attach a separate page with the student's name and student ID number at the top.
