Separation Documentation Needed

If legally separated, provide a copy of a court-issued document.

If physically separated, provide the following documents:

- Written Statement with a detailed explanation of marital status and reason for not seeking divorce.
- Reference Letters: If you do not have a court date for their divorce proceedings or are not pursuing a divorce at this time, attach a letter which confirms your separation from a professional, on their correspondence letterhead. For example, your pastor, marriage counselor, or your attorney can provide such a letter.
- Testimonials: Provide notarized statements from two people, other than relatives, that know of your marital situation.
- Official documentation you permanently reside in separate residences: this must include official documents such as separate leases/mortgages statements, bank statements, driver's license, and utility bills. Documentation must show that two separate households are maintained at two different physical addresses. Provide current copies of you and your spouse's lease/mortgage statements with last month's proof of payment (i.e. cancelled check) and last month's electricity/gas or landline telephone bill.

- Copies of all W-2 forms and Official Tax Return transcripts from IRS for your most recent tax filing year.

Additional Documents That May Be Used:

- Letter from a Shelter Administrator
- DSS Documentation of qualifying household members used when applying for benefits
- For military and their dependents: a signed letter on letterhead from the Family Services Office, Unit Chaplain, or the Unit S-1 Personnel Office
